

DAVE ROREM COMES TO THE WEST COAST FOR A PRE-MASTER NATIONAL SEMINAR!

Dave Rorem, the World's premier trainer of retriever handlers is coming to the Umpqua, Oregon region for a workshop/seminar to be held on Friday-Sunday, September 7,8, and 9th, 2018. Dave has done many seminars in the past, but always in the Field Trial format. This will be his first in the Hunt Test format. The seminar will be held in the same general region as the AKC Master National Hunt Test and will be held roughly a month before the Master National. It is designed to help people who are preparing for the 2018 Master National. The three days of tests will include pheasant and duck flyers and water/land tests.

There are 20 handler/dog teams allowed in this seminar, each of whom will receive custom coaching from Dave. There will also be an unlimited number of observers allowed to watch the dogs run the tests and to listen to Dave's coaching. Hunt testers who have previously attended Dave's Field Trial seminars have raved about Dave's coaching on handling technique and reading the dog's actions.

Registration will open for West Coast hunt testers on June 15, 2018. Registration will be handled through the roremretrievers.com website. Registration for the limited and coveted handler/dog teams will be $550 each and observers can register for $350 each. We expect the 20 handler/dog team slots to go quickly. The fee covers the three-day seminar only. Meals, lodging and travel expenses are not covered in the registration fee.

Check out roremretrievers.com for more info. Sign up quickly because after July 1 registration will open nationally and internationally for this seminar. West Coast hunt testers have a 15 day jump on general registration so sign up quickly! You don't want to miss this one.
